“ I think of my friend Peggy often. Her kind heart, her vivacious spirit and her wonderful sense of humor I will always miss. I still can't believe she's no longer on this earth. If there is just one thing I could tell her before she left this world I would tell her that I finally took her advice and I 'dumped that chump'. She'd be happy for me. I hope there's polka in heaven
God bless you girl 😊

“ Peggy I can't believe it's been almost five years. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you and frequently shed a tear -- usually accompanied by laughter -- remembering our adventures and good times. I miss you so much, dang it. There is no way the void you left with your passing will ever be filled. Love you always, my friend.

“ My love for you will never die, come happiness or sorrow, the future though we did not know, lead us forth into tomorrow. Willow tree branches bending as the rain beads on my brow, the joy you cast into my life is good enough for now. Dreamy thoughts have filled my mind since your days drew to a end, but most of all I'm happy to say, Im blessed you were my friend.

I love you dear Peggy Dubey, you will always be in my heart beautiful!

“ I feel very grateful to have been able to meet my mother in law. Such a wonderful person that had a great sense of humor and was able to touch people's hearts in such a short time. Always making Lexi and I feel welcome and comfortable from the moment we met. We are very sad Peggy was unable to meet Emma, however we know she is watching over us. Peggy will greatly be missed. We wish we had more time. Love Lynette and Lexi Xoxo

“Peggy, my dear dear friend. We were complete opposites, but one in heart. No words will ever express how much I miss you and what an empty feeling I have inside. No one's passing has ever affected me as much except for my own mother's. We made a great team who could accomplish anything. I'll never forget how important you were in my life. Your last words to me were, "We'll talk", and lady you better believe we will and I want answers. Until then, like a sister, I love you always.

“I feel so blessed to have gotten to know Peggy through the Masquers theater. First, as I watched her I many plays, and then, as I performed alongside her. She was always making everyone laugh, she loved the theater and it's people, dearly. I will sincerely miss her, masquers won't be the same without her.

“ It's hard to come to terms with such a sudden tragic experience. Randy Brooks and I were the last to visit with her on that night. We were done rehearsing and she was telling us how great everyone was doing and how the play is really coming together. Our friends at the theater always kept calling me Peggy and her Patty or via versa. She was my dear friend and theater mentor. My thoughts and prayers are with all her family and friends. Thank you Peggy for your inspiration in my life!!
