“ What a wonderful man Pete was. Cody, I remember getting hay from your neighbor when you were maybe 8 years old and how you would ride your motorcycle to the neighbor's place and help us load hay. I believe your dad had a lot to do with your work ethics and willingness to help others. I believe he gave you a good heart. Felicia, it was always a pleasure working with you at the dental office. You always seemed to know what I needed before I knew what I needed. Your father instilled great work habits and compassion for others in you too. I got to know your dad best through both of you. You were lucky to have him, but he too, was lucky to have you. Both of you have been so dedicated to his well-being over the years. I can only imagine the sadness in your hearts from losing him, but I also feel that he would want you to carry on with happy hearts as you remember his life well lived.

“Pete was a gentle soul who loved deeply. As a pre-teen, I remember him returning to our family after serving our country in the navy. He was so very grateful to my parents and so kind, humble and brave, happy to start his own family in RC. I was, oh, in love with baby Felicia, then Cody and thought my new job as a teen Auntie was the coolest thing. Pete was such an attentive person, wanting to give, learn, love...doing his best for others. I will miss him and miss his silly infectious laugh, soft giggles, big smile with his eyes, warm hugs. May you rest in peace Pete. 🙏❤️🕊️”

“Nearly a life time of memories come to mind as we think back over the years of barbecues, birthday parties, and every benchmark event around our children and friendship. And we especially remember the day that Pete stood as one of the groomsman’s in our wedding. We were so grateful for his presence, love and friendship. Pete was one of hardest working person we have known. Above all his humor and stories he was also one of the most inspiring, dedicated and loving father and grandfather. His life was center around his children to the very end. Our heart goes out to Cody, Felisha, Desire, Oakley and Sadie. Pete leave them a treasure of memories and unconditional love in their hearts that will never end. And as it is so hard to say goodbye because he will be missed, he is at peace as there guardian angel above. He will be there to see how remarkable they have become as brother, sister, parents and truly remarkable individuals. Good bye our dear friend - may you rest in peace.”
