*Pamm Maus Boland: My heart goes out to the Lybbert & Alexander/Blomgren families. Phyllis was like an older sister to all us younger girls. Such a sweet sweet person. And what a great family. Thank you David for posting.

*David Miles Oman: If I remember correctly Phyllis ran for Miss Moses Lake in 1974. i think she was a Princess when Marla Jean Richins was Queen. She truly was a breath-taker of a pretty and talented girl. She attended our Church congregation. Sometimes the preachin got a little tiresome but all we had to do was to see Phyllis and it made it worth the effort to get outta bed on Sunday morning.
Doug.. there is a link to the website for the Sammamish funeral home on the obit above. Sue.. you are correct.. It is the Guardian Angels Cemetery out Wheeler Road. This new facility is stunning.. with it's layout, landscaping , duck pond, etc. i will actually try to repost some of your comments on the funeral home website, as well as on in Moses Lake. Let's all encourage Terry to get his FB page going or to take over Phyllis's page. At present unless we are Phyllis's "friend" we cannot leave a comment.##imported-

“ avid Miles Oman Phyllis Rose Lybbert, age 55, passed away October 15, 2011.

Phyllis was born February 13, 1956 in Flagstaff, Arizona to Julia and Victor Munoz. She grew up throughout Washington State. The Alexander family settled in Moses Lake. Phyllis graduated from Moses Lake High School class of 1974. It was there she met her adoring husband of 37 years C. Terry Lybbert. They were married June 13, 1974. They lived there for 13 years during which 6 of their 7 children were born. In April of 1987 a very pregnant Phyllis and Terry packed up Mandee, Dustin, Marcy, April, Annell and Andrew and moved to Sammamish, WA. Their youngest Felicia was born a few weeks later. They have lived in Sammamish for 24 years.

Phyllis was a loving wife and a devoted mother of 7 children and grandmother of 15 grandchildren. Each of which she loved and adored. She loved flowers and made sure her garden was always blooming. Phyllis liked to read and could always be found with a book. She was a talented seamstress and cook. She loved children and was a nanny for many families besides watching her own grandchildren at any opportunity. She is remembered as a loving, generous, tender wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend.

Survivors include her loving husband, Terry Lybbert of Sammamish; children, Mandee (Nathan) Quinton of North Bend, Dustin (Shirlee) Lybbert of Auburn, Marcy (Joshua) Day of Wasilla, AK, April (Brett) Henry of Corning, CA, Annell Searing of Snoqualmie and Andrew (Virginia) Lybbert of Provo, UT; her mother Julia Blomgren of North Bend; 15 grandchildren and a host of extended family members and friends.

Preceded in death by her daughter Felicia Hollis Lybbert.

A funeral service will be held 9 AM, Friday, October 21, 2011 at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints 26529 SE Duthie Hill Road, Issaquah, WA. A graveside dedication will be held at 2:30 PM at Moses Lake Cemetery in Moses Lake, WA.

Friends are invited to view photos, get directions and share memories in the family's online guest book at www.flintofts.com.

Arrangements are entrusted to Flintoft's Funeral Home and Crematory, 540 E. Sunset Way, Issaquah, Washington, 98027, 425-392-6444.

“ Dear Terry and family. i am just so filled with love and compassion for your family. When you and Phyllis got together i know it broke a lot of guys hearts. But you have both shown that yours was a union meant to be. I am brokenhearted to think that you have been thrust into this separation so soon. i lost my 19 year old daughter, Melea, in May 2005. it still hurts but she and your sweet wife and mother will be close to those she loves. Our life go on in the hereafter while we await our time to reunite here on Earth.. The next phase of Phyllis' life is full of joy and further growth. I have got to think that Phyllis and Felecia and Melea were greatly needed to be away from us so early in life. God bless all of you as your life here on Earth moves on. many prayers including mine shall be with you... David Miles Oman###imported-begin##David Miles Oman###imported-end##
