

Randy Fair

August 11, 1968 - February 18, 2016

The family of Randy J. Fair regrettably announce the passing of 47 year-old Randy Fair on February 18, 2016 in Moses Lake Washington. Randy was born to Roger and Dorothy Fair in 1968 in Seattle, Washington. In 1976, the family moved to Moses Lake where he continued his education and graduated from Moses Lake High School. Randy was the middle son and he had two brothers, Brian and Martin.

Roger and Dorothy encouraged both scholastics and athletics for the boys and Randy excelled in wrestling and swimming in his high school years. Due to his sheer will and work ethic, Randy made himself into a superior athlete. He won multiple high point awards while swimming for the Big Bend Manta Rays swim team where his swimming career began the same year as Tony St. Onge's coaching career. Twice Randy qualified for and represented the Inland Empire's swim team competing in the Western Zones swim meet ("Zones"), a rare feat due to the fact that he could only train during the summer before Moses Lake had an indoor pool. Ron Seibel next made Randy into a champion wrestler. In his junior year Randy surprised everyone winning the coveted Tri-State championship and finishing second in the high school state championship, losing in the finals by a single point. He went on to dominate his weight class as a senior despite a broken clavicle, but came up a little short at the high school state championships and finished fourth. Later as a young adult Randy returned to the wrestling team for five years as an assistant to coach Seibel.

Randy attended the University of Washington where he made life-long friends. After graduating with a Bachelor's degree in 1990 he attended law school at the University of Oregon. Due to his Husky football loyalty he had to escape Eugene after a year and he transferred to the Seattle University School of Law where he graduated with a Juris Doctorate in 1993.

While in law school, Randy started dating Carolyn Jones, from Lynchburg, Virginia. After graduation in 1993, they both obtained jobs east of the mountains. Randy settled in Moses Lake and started working for Lukins & Annis P.S. while Carolyn secured a job as a Benton County Deputy Prosecutor in Kennewick, Washington. In 1995, Randy and Carolyn were married and while building their law careers, they also started raising a family. First came Addison, born in 1998, then Anna in 1999, followed by Jackson in 2002. Following family traditions, Randy and Carolyn encouraged scholastics and athletics with the children and all three have excelled in both areas where they are currently attending Moses Lake High School and Frontier Middle School.

Nothing gave Randy greater joy than organizing, coaching, and participating as a parent in his children's athletic activities. He lived for the camaraderie amongst children and parents in the athletic community.

Randy is survived by his widow Sasha and daughter Lucy; parents, Roger Fair of Moses Lake, Dorothy Fair of North Bend, brothers Brian Fair (Shirley) of Wenatchee; Martin Fair of North Bend; former spouse Carolyn Jones Benzel of Moses Lake and their three children, Addison, Anna, and Jackson Fair, as well as numerous cousins, nephews, nieces, aunts and uncles that he loved and was loved by them.

Randy will always be remembered for his wonderful outgoing personality, original sense of humor and dedication to his children and family.

Randy's family is so grateful for the outpouring of support from the community, family, and friends. It has provided great comfort during this time of immense grief.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 23, 2016 at

Moses Lake Presbyterian Church, 1142 W. Ivy, Moses Lake, with a reception to follow. Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family at www.kayserschapel.com

“ So sorry.. Nothing but good memories growing up with him as a cousin.

Bill Fair - March 28, 2016 at 08:42 PM

“ When I think of Randy, I remember he was full of energy, always playful, so much fun, Playing with my Sons, (his cousins) Bill and Bob Fair. He always had a twinkle in his eyes, thinking of something fun to play as a child. Full of life, excited to play, and lived life with passion. We so feel your loss Roger and Dorothy, with a heavy heart. Cant believe your sweet baby is gone. I pray for peace that God can give You. I want you to know how very sorry we are. Such a Smart, Loving Son, Handsome too, Sending Love to U all! Love Patricia (Trish Fair) Van Lierop, Olympia, WA

“ I am sad to hear that Randy passed away. I got to know him a few years ago on a case we handled on opposing sides. He did a good job for his client, and was always friendly, courteous, and professional in his dealings with me. We figured out that he and I were in the same fraternity at the UW, although he joined a year or two after I graduated. I liked him. My condolences to Brian and the rest of the family.

“ My thoughts and prayers to all of Randy's family, I am forever grateful to Randy for taking my L&I case a couple years ago, Randy worked hard and won my case and I will always remember what a kind man he was, he would talk about his kids and how proud he was of all them, his face lit up when talking about his kids. May you all keep God close to your hearts.

“ Too-hard-to-Handle-Randall:
My life was forever changed the day I met you. I didn't know what to make of you. I could tell you were one of the "popular kids" and they had never wanted anything to do with me because of my walker--so I was a little suspicious of your efforts to befriend me. But soon with your grin and great sense of humor, you'd won me over. Thank you for visiting me in the hospital when I was so sick, for the hugs, for encouraging me to never give up on the job front. I am still waiting for that "one chance" you always spoke of, but I will keep at it like you wanted. You are an amazing dad. It was one of the things I admired most about you--I so wish I could bring you back to be with your "pups." All I ever wanted was for you to be happy and healthy and I so wish I could've helped you. I am devastated that you are no longer on this earth. I have never been afraid of dying as you know because I will be able to walk, and run, and jump, and yes, SWIM, there--and I won't be sick. When it is my time to go--I pray you are among my loved ones in Heaven there to greet me. You will always have a piece of my heart, my dear friend and I will think of you every single day of my life. Thank you for seeing me as a normal person. You have no idea how much it means to me. You are my true friend.

“ The last couple of days I have found myself looking through school annuals, little league baseball photos and other memorabilia from the past, only to realize how often Randy was in those pictures always with his “Can Do” smile. My earliest recollection of Randy was in 6th grade at Lakeview. The entire 6th grade was going to race around the Lakeview school property, about a mile and half in distance. I knew I was one of the fastest kids, especially at distance because I had been training hard by running around the largest field on our farm every morning before school. I was determined to win this race, and as predicted I was out in front by at least 100 yards at the mid point, and then out of no where I heard some one right behind me. I turned to see who it was, and it was Randy. I did my best to not let him pass by forcing him to go around me, but that he did. He ended up completely smoking me, and I took a very disappointing second.

Randy was the type of individual that raised the bar for us all. Whether in sports, friendships, academics, or life in general. Randy pushed us all to be better. Although he was blessed with a multiplicity of talents, he never rested, often out working us all. He was always the first one on the mat, and the last one to leave. Although he was talented, hardworking, successful and popular in HS, he had a way of making everyone feel included and important, regardless of what grade you were in, your ability, or background.

One of his qualities that I admired most was his incredible wit and sense of humor. When the chips were down, he always found a way to motivate others to do their best, and often did so with his humor, like no one else could.

Having lived out of state since graduating HS, I've had very little contact with Randy. My last memory was at our 20th HS reunion, when he randomly came and sat down by me and very sincerely started asking about my life, my career, wife, and children etc. You always knew that he truly cared. Then without missing a beat, he started making jokes about people as they came walking in like only

Randy could. He could have easily been the next Jay Leno or David Letterman replacement. He brightened all of our lives and we are all better people because of him. May we always remember him by following his example in serving others and helping each other reach our goals and potential.

“Randy was an inspirational leader! He genuinely loved people, hoped the very best for them, and sacrificed much to help others succeed! He knew how to rally a group of swimmers back in the 1980's...for encouraging team spirit / unity, for guidance in setting personal goals, for teaching the discipline needed to accomplish those goals. When I was 12, Randy coached my age group during the BBMR summer swim season. I paid little attention to eating power foods before an important swim event. As I was savoring a deliciously-cheesy-greasy enchilada from the nearby taco shop, Randy happened by and said, with good reason, "Why are you eating that crap!?!?" He knew, far better than I, the consequences of proper training, wise eating, and adequate sleep on a given race. That evening, I missed my Regionals goal time...by 2 tenths of a second. Randy did not give up on me...and continued to coach myself and our age group with laughter, intensity, the no-pain-no-gain and positive-mental-attitude mottos, always accompanied by encouraging words! Randy, you are a FEARFULLY and WONDERFULLY MADE SOUL, by the very hands and breath of God!!! Psalm 139

To Randy's children and the Fair family, I am deeply sorry for your loss. May the steadfast love of the LORD bring you all hope, peace, and rest.

“ A thin cotton red jacket, blue jeans, his glasses, and a ball cap tipped off the forehead a little higher than most. A hilarious joke, comment, or unique observation was often carefully worded, then followed by his one-of-a-kind gentle laughter. I remember drilling in the wrestling room with Randy while he wore a long sleeve windbreaker jacket of some sort like he was still trying to make weight as a middle-aged attorney. We ate a lot of pizza at Randy's house in the off-season...he always welcomed us in as if he genuinely enjoyed the company of a bunch of scatter-brained awkward high school kids...what an awesome feeling for young athletes...that a coach would choose to hang out with them during off-time! He even took a crew of us to a freestyle tournament one weekend and we all stayed at his Mom's house outside of Seattle. We probably all blew it off like no big deal but having a family and a career of my own now I appreciate the sacrifice significantly more. Randy you will be missed by many for a short season...til we are all rejoined. May the grace of a loving Creator find your family and closest friends today.

“ I only reconnected with Randy a few years ago. My sister and I had swum for the Manta Rays (at that time "The Big Bend Manta Rays") under Tony, as did Randy. Randy reconnected with me, a coach for the Barracudas and later Velocity, to chat about the competition for his girls with my team's girls of the same age. Later, I got to have in depth conversations with him when the Moses Lake pool was undergoing some construction and he chose to use the East Wenatchee Y Aquatic Center for his exercise. He was the same. He had the same engaging smile and the same furrow in his brow. Concerned and wanting to make things right, for everyone. I will never forget his warm handshake or his gently concerned smile. I wish his family the best and I am sorry of the loss of such a warm person to this world.

“ It is times like this we find ourselves struggling to express our deep sense of loss and convey it to the family. May you find comfort and peace in knowing how many lives he touched, how many friends he gathered through out his life, that he has left a special memory with us all. Randy, we will remember him as a part of our life, who lived close to us, left us with many wonderful childhood memories with our boys. “ I remember I was grounded & you came over, then I was hitting golf ball in the back yard with a nine iron! I handed the club to you & of course I stood right behind you, cause I always learned something from you, all of a sudden" crack", your back swing caught me right above the eye, bleeding & all, I told you to go home so we wouldn't get into trouble! Another time, after school, we were running through the church parking lot, we were neck to neck, after that race you started jogging, I could never be that close again! You always bettered yourself bro, no matter what obstacle, you always over came it!!! Thank You Bro, not only did you better yourself... You bettered me! R.I.P. "Hey Randal, it's Russell" I miss that bro! I have always had a special place in my heart for my neighbor, friend & all around great guy!!! Just try & remember... That The Lord Always Takes The Good Ones, who deserve more than what life has to offer!!! I MISS YOU BRO!!! Love Always & Forever, Rusty & Traci

“ Dear Dorothy, Roger, & family (Addie, Anna, & Jackson; We are so sorry to hear that Randy has passed away. Randy wore a winning smile, and everyone liked him. He was Father of the year, who welcomed all kids into his home. (Our grandkids too). Randy was active in all of his children's sports. It was fun to see Jackson wrestle & play soccer, and watch Randy coach a long the side lines. Our hearts ache for all of you. Our thoughts & prayers are with you all. Cathy & Paul Kersey

“ Randy took me under his protective wing when I was an awkward 9th grader competing on the HS wrestling team. He was an incredible mentor, showing me how hard you have to work and the sacrificing that must be made in order to achieve extremely ambitious goals. He absolutely walked the walk, he was "Randall the Handle" for God's sake, nobody outworked him. It was not uncommon for him to pick me up to practice and train on off-days, nights, weekends, and holidays. The guy was absolutely tireless. I learned so much from him in those formative years including ensuring that I kept things fun and not take things too seriously. He gave me a sneak peak into what being an upperclassman might be like and the responsibility of paying it forward to the next generation.

He became a great family friend and stayed in contact with me or through my parents when I went off to college. He had the most remarkable wit and sense-of-humor but could get equally as serious when necessary. His smile could light up a room and his charm was unmatched. I will cherish the memories we shared and have enormous gratitude for the care he showed me. Vaya con dios amigo.

“ When I was the day custodian at Frontier Middle School for 14 wonderful years, Randy was a lunch room fixture, coming in more than just once in a while--he was there many, many times to have lunch with his kids. Mild-mannered and pleasant, he sat at the table and enjoyed the company of his daughter and her friends. Randy also gave me some free lawyer advice while standing in line at Starbucks. I was working on a scene in one of the books I was working on, and it had a legal issue rise up. In a couple of minutes he had cleared up the question for me. Funny thing (and now sad) was that as I finished writing the book, from that day on it was Randy's face that represented the lawyer in my story. I am truly grief-stricken to know I won't see him anymore.

“ My deepest condolences to the Fair family. I was just informed of Randy's passing from our fraternity brother at the University of Washington. I have been in Europe since 1990 and have thus had little opportunity to follow Randy's career and family life, but his unexpected passing brought back so many memories from our college days. His brother, Brian, and I were in the same class and I was Randy's "big brother" in the fraternity. I will always remember him for his laugh, wit, and unassuming manner--he brought much more to the table than he ever let on. Rest in peace. Mark

“ He has been in our family's life for about 6 years. He was very supportive of my son as a swimmer both while he was on the team and even after my son swam off the team. He swam with my son during open swim over the last few years. He was always friendly to our family and shared a deep passion and love for the swim world. He will be deeply missed.

“ Years ago, when my young children were deeply involved in the Manta Rays swim team, Randy was a constant presence at the poolside--cheering on his own children, my children, and so many others. I will always remember him for his big smile, ready laugh, and enthusiastic support and encouragement toward the young swimmers of Moses Lake. May God bless his own beautiful children.

“ Remembering how much Randy loved his children and how he instigated summertime fun for the neighborhood kids. Water balloon fights supplied by coolers full of the small colorful balloons always brought much screaming & laughter. Rest peacefully Randy. Condolences to the extended family. “ Randy was my conformation sponsor for church, I had stress to Carolyn how important it was that he was on time. Well Randy was on time but I wasn't. So when we were taken back to talk the bishop we got in trouble for being late. Randy looked at me and said, " the one time I'm on time I get in trouble by the bishop because you were late to your own conformation, thanks." I have many fond memories of Randy through my younger years and for babysitting for him. Rest in peace.

“ Randy changed my sons life and my own. I knew of Randy from seeing him around school but it wasn't until I needed an attorney that I really got to know him. Randy was the nicest, most honest and one hilarious guy! I needed Randy in a divorce case that went on and on. I was about ready to give up due to money but Randy told me to go for custody of my son. I thought he was crazy and that there is no way that the courts would grant a father custody. A long story short, he made it happen and absolutely changed our lives! I tell the story of how Randy would joke around and make a difficult time in my life very memorable. I ended up with custody of my boy and it was the greatest thing that could have happened. My son is 21 now and in the military and has turned out to be a wonderful young man. I owe Randy so much for changing our lives. Thank you Randy for everything you did for my family. I will never forget you as long as I live. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Roger, Dorothy, Brian and Marty... I love you all! I will always remember one summer at Pelican Point years ago when all us kids were in school... Randy decided he was going try and set the world record for walking on his HANDS! For weeks I would come to hang with Marty and Randy would be tooling around the house upside down! It made a real impression on me. He had the warmest smile and the most awesome sense of humor. He was my lawyer for my second divorce. In more recent years it was usually at Safeway where I would see him. The last time I spoke with Randy, ironically, was at Joe Rogers funeral a couple months ago. I've been thinking about a lot today... little babies are born every day and loved ones depart us... Randy is a part of that circle. Much love!

“ Dear Randy's family,
We are so very sorry for your loss. We had the pleasure of having Randy as a neighbor. His kindness and smile will always be remembered. Last year after our son passed away, he brought a lasagna he humbly said he made himself and that it probably wouldn't be very good. It was, of course, great and his thoughtfulness made it even better. One of our sons is a senior at MLHS and a friend of Addie's. Randy welcomed the teens at his house often and laughed and joked around with them. What a great example he was to our son. He was so thoughtful, this last fall, to save every newspaper our son was in during the football season and delivered them to us. There are no words to comfort you enough, but we'll be praying for your family and especially Addie, Anna and Jack.
God Bless,
Beau & Monica Montgomery
