Reginald Eugene Whitehurst Jr.

“Reg” or “Reggie”

12/18/1941 - 01/13/2022

His father was Reginald Eugene Whitehurst Sr. and his mother was Valeria Lee Rhodes Whitehurst. Born in Norfolk Virginia but called South Mills, North Carolina home. His father was in the Coast Guard so they moved around a bit but ended up settling in South Mills.

Survived by his wife and high school sweetheart Gloria “Gae” Whitehurst, his sisters Decilia Dozier and Patricia Markham; and their 7 daughters: Gloria, Mary, Lisa, Melinda, Bonnie, Paula and Brandi. His legacy lives on through his 14 grandchildren and 9 greatgrandchildren.

Reggie served honorably in the US Airforce between 1961-1965. He owned and operated a donut shop in Renton, Washington called “Chuck’s Donuts”. He retired to Othello, Washington and loved the view off his back porch. He loved to joke around and telling stories about his adventures and all the funny and crazy things he had seen and done for fun. He was the kind of man who would give the shirt off his back to make sure someone else was taken care of and always putting others first. He valued hard work, innovation and leaving things better than you found them. He loved tending to his garden, working around the house, and traveling around with his wife and dog when he was able to.

“ How I love you Gae and my heart goes out to you and your family. You and Reggie have meant so much to Garth and I. I know these two friends will greet each other warmly. Please accept my condolences. I wish for you comfort and peace. My fondest remembrance of Reggie , for the most unlikely reason, is his first talk in Royal First Ward. He talked about his experiences driving truck. I do not remember the particular story he told that day, just the whole congregation laughed heartily. I've enjoyed his wonderful sense of humor and friendship ever since then. Joan Gunter
