“ Richard was not only my father n law but one of my mentors and best friends. Im going to miss our trips up north looking for dead fall looking up at the stars and the adventures we had. I will also miss your humor, our conversations, our breakfast stops and so much more. It was and will always be an honor and privilege knowing you. Thank you for trusting me to marry your daughter even after I embarrassed myself when asking you to do so. I sincerely miss you and always will. Be safe wherever your journey leads you and if you could pop by every now and then so I know your okay.

I've known Richard since my high school days. I remember his wife, Cheryl, his mother in-law, Ella Mae Kemp & her son, Claude. I didn't know that his wife had passed away.

My daughter used to go to their house & play with his daughters when we lived in Knolls Vista.

I remember Richard talking about his wife & kids & that he was thankful for his sobriety.

Prayers for Richard & all of his loved ones. Bless u'all.
