“ Bobby its just heart breaking to know that you are gone. I know your in a better place but its just so hard to think that everything will be the same. And nothing has been the same since you went missing. I wish i could have been there that night, Just like i know so many others wish the same thing,as friends and family, we all feel a bit of guilt or that if we could have been there then maybe it would have turned out better and you would still be here. I miss you bro, you were such an amazing friend. I love you and you will never ever be forgotten. You have so much love in so many people hearts that theres no way that you will ever be forgotten. I love you and i never was told when the funeral was and so i feel guilty for not paying my respects to such a great guy and awesome friend. So Bobby, i will not say good bye, for right now it is see you later, see you around and see you soon my good friend! i know your looking down at us right now. I love you man###imported-begin##Myranda Baker###imported-end##

“ Death comes unexpectedly and yet we remain hopeful that we shall see those who pass before us once again in a distant future, as we regret that they were the ones who had to go before us. Let us not forget those around us that we can cling to and remember the good and distant memoriesof them and hold on to them. We shall see them again.###imported-begin##Lisa Marie Knittle###imported-end##

“ Bobby,
I can't find the right words to express the loss we ALL feel. What I can say is how monumentally you affected all of our lives, the love you always showed, the kindness that touched so many, will stay with us forever. To his family; we are so deeply sorry for your loss, I hope in the midst of your grieving, you can ALWAYS find peace in knowing what a wonderful person you brought into this world. But mostly how grateful we all are for the enormous impact he has had on our lives.##imported-begin##Brittney Wilson##imported-end##
