

Robert V Caldwell

November 25, 1925 - January 4, 2015

Robert V. "Bob" Caldwell, 89, a resident of Moses Lake passed away Sunday, January 4, 2015 at Summerwood Care Center, his family at his side.

Burial will be in Lincoln Memorial Park in Lincoln, Nebraska. Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family.

Bob was born to Calvin and Bessie (Batton) Caldwell in Lincoln, Nebraska on November 25, 1925. As a young child he had a cat named Josephine and he played a clarinet. He graduated high school and then went into the military.

During the four years that he served in the Army, he worked mostly overseas as a repairman for the airplanes. After the military, he went to college and got a degree in teaching and in engineering at the University of Nebraska. He then had a job as a teacher in a boys reformatory and as a Police Commissioner. He later got a job at Boeing as an engineer working in the "Black Hole," a place where everything was kept secret. This is where he retired. Bob met his wife, Anna, on a blind date. Together they have five children, seven grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Bob was very social. He loved airplanes, bowling, fishing, golfing, dancing, singing, and putting on BBQs. He enjoyed having company and when he lived in a retirement resort, he held Happy Hour every night at his house for the neighborhood. He coordinated many events at his house and loved to entertain. He had a cat named Jasper also. Bob and his wife have traveled the U.S. in their motor home and have been to Hawaii and the Bahamas.

Survivors include 5 children, Roxie Carlmas, Michael & Marge Caldwell, Terry

Hayes, Debra Carlmas, and Dennis Carlmas; 7 grandchildren, Michelle, Bobby, Shelly, Richard, Heather, Bailey, and Valerie.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Margaret and his second wife, Anna.

Tribute Wall

VL

“ 8 files added to the tribute wall

Valerie Lynn - January 09, 2015 at 04:07 PM

SF

“ 7 files added to the album Robert Caldwell

Sandra Fuller - January 05, 2015 at 04:06 PM