“ Robert was a different soul. Robert had a different way of looking at things. He and I had many interesting conversations over the years. We also had many disagreements as well. Robert was a very kind soul who I believe was misunderstood by a lot of people. I saw him a little while back and he still had that mischievous Robert grin and laugh. My late uncle once told me you will meet people in your life who annoy the hell out of you yet will also be your friend. I think this best sums up my friendship with Robert Chance. We annoyed the hell out of each other but yet we both considered the other a good friend.

Rest in peace Robert.
