“ I will always remember him sitting in that rocking chair at the SCCA house, with that hat on. He was always willing to talk to anyone that passed by. I sure wished I could have got to know him better. We will always remember him and still remain friends with Shirley. RIP Robert my friend. Even though we all had cancer patients we still found that we could laugh and be ourselves with our group of people that we met.

“ Shirley and Family,
I am sorry to hear of Robert. I will always remember that Volkswagon he had back in the '70's. I went everywhere with him in that VW when we were playing with the Chavez Band. He was a good friend and will be missed.
