

Robert "Dr. Bob" Mangold

October 15, 1948 - December 19, 2012

Robert James Mangold was born 15 October, 1948, and died December 19, 2012. Robert (Dr. Bob) was the middle son of his late parents, Gwen and Cecil Mangold of Mishawauka, Indiana. His surviving brothers, Albert Mangold and David Mangold, always saw him as the best and brightest of the three. Before becoming a veterinarian, Robert had been a welder/fitter for 20 years. His work as a welder/fitter can still be seen in some of the fishing vessels and tug boats that ply the waters of Oregon and Washington.

It was his compassion for animals that led him to his mid-life career change. His work as a veterinarian allowed him to help both animals as well as the people who loved them. He also loved hunting, fishing, gardening, cooking and raising poultry. Although a private person away from the clinic, he had many friends. Dr. Bob was born, lived a productive life, and died. It is this cycle of life that binds all mankind together. Let us all do our best as he did. We miss you, Dr. Bob.

“ Deepest sympathy to the family and staff of Dr. Bob. He was simply "great" - he had a wonderful manner and was very giving with his knowledge and time. He guided us with our papered, strays, and rescues over many years. He even encouraged social visits for the pets but we all enjoyed the times. Thank you Bob and we do miss you greatly. RIP.##imported-begin##Dan/Jadine McCarthy, Dawn Leishman##imported-end##

“ I worked with Dr. Bob at Animal Medical Center for approximately 5 years. I had a love of animals but no experience. Dr. Bob was very patient with my learning curve. I learned quickly under his teachings. I thank him for all the knowledge he shared. He had a special kindness for all the animals he treated. Thank You Dr. Bob, You will be missed##imported-begin##Linda Justesen##imported-end##

““Dr. Bob” lovingly took care of all of our dogs over time. He was caring and treated each dog as if he knew their unique personalities. Even when he had to put one of them to sleep for the last time, he treated them, and us, with the utmost respect. I will always be thankful for you, “Dr. Bob”. Until we meet again!##imported-begin##Terri Jamison##imported-end##

“Dr. Bob was “One Of A Kind”. Kind and compassionate to owners and pets and so skilled in veterinary medicine. I know of two surgeries on tiny puppies that should have been taken to WSU. However, Dr. Bob was able to perform them in the clinic and both lived long and happy lives after they were “adopted” by Karen. He treated dogs with great empathy for which we are grateful. RIP Dr. Bob, cross the Rainbow Bridge and say “hi” to Jack.##imported-begin##Kathie King##imported-end##

“ Dr. Bob always took great care of our dogs. He even came to our house to give Sassy, our Chocolate Lab, shots she needed after hip surgery so she wouldn't have to leave the house. He was always concerned about our health and our dog's. He would be the first to call if anything was wrong.

He was a great friend for many years and will be missed by all who knew him.##imported-begin##Gary and Barb Main##imported-end##
