“ Sandy always when she walked into a room it would light up with her smile and she would light you up as well. Though out the many years of Sandy n my BFF we have shared so much good and bad! Sandy is the most caring, compassionate and lovely person n BFF you ever want to have. I love you so Sandy and we'll see if you can still kick my bowling score when we meet again. Love you more than the air I breathe.

“ Sandra...I will never forget that you welcomed all of us into your home on Thanksgiving a few years ago..We will never forget your hospitality. .generosity. .your loving arm's. .your love..your laughter..your personality and sense of humor ♡ I still think of that Special Thanksgiving day♡ And inviting us over to swim on a hot summer day! I wish I had known you longer but when I was around you..I felt like I had known you forever! That was just the way you are♡ I will miss you dearly. .love you forever and a day ♡ RIP my very dear lady. .and now you are in no more pain and with your dear husband again♡ Until we meet again! One more thing. .I also remember you telling me how much you thought of our son Mark Jorgensen & how what a good man he is...I felt proud...still do & warm and fuzzy inside! And you were grateful for Mark coming into Rachel's life! Love you Sandra Swanson Grover ♡♡
