“ Sandra was such a dear friend. We served together in church callings and grew close. She would amaze me as I grew to learn more about her. She had many talents. Lisa and my daughter JoAnna were in the same young women's class and Sandra and I were their advisors.

I had the opportunity to be Sandra's escort when she took out her endowments for the first time. My husband Steve drove us to the Seattle Temple in -20 degree weather and it was a wonderful experience despite the cold winter weather. An experience that I will always remember.

And then we were able to serve in the Columbia River Temple as ordinance workers together. How we enjoyed our time in the temple. Such treasured memories.

I had been thinking of Sandra lately but alas, did not make contact with her and I regret that. Rest in peace my dear friend. My condolences to Sandra's family, who were her heart and soul. Greater love hath no mother than the love that Sandra had for her family.

Love, Sharon Tolley
