

Sandra Stoutenburg

June 17, 1944 - February 11, 2019

Sandra K. Stoutenburg, 74, went home peacefully to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ Sunday, February 10th after a valiant fight with cancer. She is survived by her brother and sister-in-law Wesley & Mary Lou Francis, of Renton, WA, her sister and brother-in-law Susan and Bill Warner of Moses Lake, WA , and numerous nieces and nephews.

After a 30-year career working for the State of Oregon, Sandra spent the majority of her retirement years living in Honolulu, HI. She left her beloved Hawaii in December of 2016 to return to the mainland to be closer to family and resided in Moses Lake. Sandra was an avid reader of mystery novels and had a passion for travel. She toured Australia, China, India, Europe, and a cruise through the Panama Canal to name a few. She was a devoted member of her church where she served on the Altar Guild committee. She will be dearly missed by family, friends, and all who knew her.

Funeral services will be Saturday, February 23rd at 11:00 am at the Apostolic Lutheran Church located in the Moses Lake Christian Academy, 1475 Nelson Road NE, Suite B Room 206, Moses Lake. In lieu of flowers donations can be given to the Apostolic Lutheran Church Building Fund.

The family would like to extend our gratitude to the staff at the Monroe House where she resided, to the Confluence Oncology Infusion Center and the Samaritan Short Stay Unit for their compassionate and extraordinary care.
