“ I am so sorry for your loss. During Sarah's elementary days at Longview Elementary and living in a neighborhood near us and my daughter, Heather, being her classmate, allowed us to spend lots of time together. I helped her make a quilt for her daddy. She was a precious young lady tat will be missed. May God wrap His arms around you as you all grieve through this time of healing.##imported-begin##Amy Record Hendrickson##imported-end##

“ Learning of the passing of Sarah is so sad. Sarah was an amazing young woman. We had so many great times together when she was young. I was so happy to see here again a few years ago. I have loved reading all the notes her friends have written. I know she was loved and will be missed so very much. I am sure she and her mom are together again catching up on old times. Our thoughts and prayers are with all who loved her. Much love, Dave & Carole##imported-begin##Dave & Carole Hopkins##imported-end##

“ Rest in paradise sarah. I still can't believe your gone. Imma miss you, we all are. I wish I was around more. I never expected to be write a message like this to you. It makes me sad that your gone and even thou your in a better place now, I selfishly wish God didn't call you home so soon and suddenly. You are such a friendly and easy to talk to person. I remember going to your house just because I needed someone to listen to me complain. Thank you for the advice and lending me your ear. I am going to be around all out Highschool friends more now because life is short and I wanna spend more time with my loved ones like I wish I did with you. I want to wake up from this nightmare and go duning with you and willie. Imma miss you Sarah. I wish you didn't have to go so soon. But I will see you when I get there. Rest In Paradise. I hugged her and cried and told her how very proud I was of her. I told her I loved her and how much I missed her momma!! Her mother was a very dear friend of mine. Her passing was so hard on me!! I know Sarah and her mother are together which lightens my heart knowing this! I love you two and can't wait to see you both again!! My condolences to the family! “ Dear Family and Friends of Sweet Sarah,

Sarah was a student of mine at CBSS. Six years ago I moved away from Moses Lake and, sadly, have not seen Sarah since. Often I have smiled as I have thought of her and remembered her lively disposition -- both sweet and fiery. She could be awfully cute and funny when she was mad!

One of my fondest memories of Sarah is that she was constantly trying to make me admit that she was my favorite student, and I would keep saying that I was not supposed to have favorites. She would turn to the other students and say, "I am her favorite; she just can't say that in front of you guys," and she would smile as only Sarah smiled. I loved her then and now and forever.

I am deeply saddened by your loss and my own -- that we will not get to be with Sarah again in this life. But if I get to be with Sarah in heaven, the first thing I will say is this: "All right, Sarah, I admit it, you are my favorite!"

I am deeply saddened by Sarah's passing and pray for you all, Sarah's friends and family, as you begin your lifelong adjustment to her being gone from earthly life. May love and peace help you bear your grief.

Much love,

Elizabeth Moore##imported-begin##Elizabeth Moore##imported-end##

I'll never forget the fun we had working together causing mayhem for the p murph crew but hold in it down at the same time. We shared so many laughs and so many memories that I will keep with me forever. You were an amazing person with so much ambition and I will miss you so much. “ I cared about Sarah very much I already had 2 little sisters and Sarah became the 3rd. Knowing i love and play music she was always finding songs she thought i would like and bringing them to me and keeping me updated with all the new music coming out, she always told me i was stuck in the 80"s LOL Sarah had a great sense of humor and we laughed at alot of the same things. My heart is heavy knowing the world has lost such a wonderful human being who was beautiful on the inside and the out. Things will never be the same without her but i know she is in a better place and heaven is alot brighter because she is there! R.I.P. and all my love
