“ Dearest Lucky:

We first met when you happened to drive by and saw our "For Rent" sign. You stopped in and inquired and fixed my problematic toilet on the spot. At that time, I didn't know that I had just encountered the most generous person God ever created. Now I do.

You have shared your time, talent, and yourself with me as you plumbed three bathrooms and a new water service for me. Your attention to detail and quality work is second to none. You expected to do all of these major remodel projects for free, as a favor to a friend. NOBODY DOES THAT! Nobody that is, except Lucky.

The physical pain you endured while working would be too much for anyone else. Not you. You didn't complain, you just did it. You are beyond amazing!

Whenever I am not doing well, I think of you. "If Lucky can endure what he is dealing with, then I can, too.

Martian McBride's lyrics are in my mind and in my heart and I dedicate them to you, your kindness, your generosity.

"Goodbye"

*Occurred to me the other day
You been gone now a couple years
Well I guess it takes a while
For someone to really disappear*

*And I remember where I was
When the word came about you
It was a day much like today
The sky was bright and wide and blue*

And I wonder where you are

*And if the pains end when you die
And I wonder if there was
Some better way to say good-bye*

*Today my heart is big and sore
It's trying to put right through my skin
Won't see you anymore
I guess that's finally sinking in Cause your can't make somebody see
With the simple words you say
ALL THEIR BEAUTY FROM WITHIN
Sometimes they just look away*

*And I wonder where you are
And if the pains end when you die
And I wonder if there was
Some better way to say good-bye*

Lucky, I understand, I miss you, and I will always love you dearly as a most wonderful friend.

“ *Lucky, I will always remember you as an amazing person. You always made me laugh and was such a loyal friend to many. Rest in peace, I know your up there watching. No more pain for you. Angels have wings, I can only imagine that instead of wings your on a bike.
See you again one day for that 'catch up' session we never had the chance to do.##imported-begin##Renea Bowman##imported-end##*

“ I was very sad to hear that you are gone. You were so much fun to work with and be around! You always made everyone smile. You are in a better place now and have hopefully found peace within your self. You will forever be remembered and missed. You touched the heart of everyone you knew. We have lost you as a friend, brother, son, uncle but God has gained an Angel to watch us all from above!! See you again someday!!###imported-begin##Sarah Crowell###imported-end##

“ Hello Lucky. I imagine you, James, and Danny are now riding together in the great beyond and terrorizing all the angels. I have no doubt in my mind that James was there waiting for you. I am so sorry that your problems and sadness became more than you could bear. Know, Lucky, in your soul that you were loved by so many people. I am also sorry that I did not get to see you one more time. With Love and Blessings. Namaste - Vicki Meyers (Mother of James Vokacek)###imported-begin##Vicki Meyers###imported-end##
