“ I count it a privilege to say I knew Stan Bell. I enjoyed the opportunity to listen and compare Stan's life experiences with my own. He appeared to be happiest when he was using his knowledge and his hands to build, fix or improve whatever was around him. I believe he did that with people also without ever intending to. I look forward to continuing our stories and association in the life to come.##imported-begin##Roger Shumate - Son-In-law##imported-end##
