

Stephen Virgil Jack

September 13, 2022

Stephen Virgil Jack, resident of Royal City, WA passed away on September 13, 2022. He is survived by his wife, Janet and their 7 children Tiffani (Jared), Toby (Leah), Marilee (Nathan), Carly (Derek), Marci (Mark), Audrey (Gustavo), Jeff (Amber), In the lot and their 37 grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents Neal and Virgene Jack. Born in Brawley, California he was the 2nd of four children, sisters Barbara O'Brien and Betty Miller, and brother Alex. Steve attended Brawley Union High School, where he excelled in football and wrestling. Following his high school graduation, Steve attended Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah until he served a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Missouri, Independence Mission. After returning from his mission he married his wife Janet in the Los Angeles LDS temple and attended Imperial Valley College where he wrestled for one season. He returned to BYU to finish his Bachelor's degree in accounting. Steve and Janet enjoyed raising their family in their hometown until moving to Kent, WA and then finally settling on the Royal Slope. Steve worked in the agricultural field and for the Beneficial Life Insurance Company. He enjoyed many hobbies such as hunting, fishing, drawing, wood working, sailing, baking and watching sports. One of his favorite places to be was Mission Beach, California where he spent many summers as a child and brought his children and grandchildren back to fall in love with the beach as well. He was a spontaneous and fun-loving father and grandfather, and a devoted husband. His memory will be cherished by many.

“ Janet was very sorry to hear about the loss of Steve. I didn't know him very well but I am sure he was great husband, father and grandfather. My prayers are with you at this time for a peaceful time of grieving. Losing your life's partner is never easy.
