“ When I was little my mom (Virginia) would call her and I would talk and visit with her. Then when we moved to Moses Lake I got to meet her and I ran up to her and hugged her like I had met her before, but in a way I did because of talking to her on the phone. She was always a sweet, kind and generous woman. When she met Jeremy he said Theresa, and she put her hands on his cheeks and said "call me Grandma not Theresa"! Grandma you are loved and missed now and forever.
