

Theresa I. Wawers

December 28, 1935 - November 15, 2013

Theresa I. (Hebert) Wawers passed away Friday, Nov. 15, 2013. She left this world peacefully, at home, surrounded by her children. Theresa was a long-time resident of the Quincy Valley, coming from North Dakota in 1957 with her husband Walt. They chose to plant roots here.

Theresa was always working, whether it was raising her 7 children, or at Lamb Weston, where she retired from. She loved to do puzzles, garden, read and travel with her husband of 44 years. Theresa was unconditional, always willing to listen with a cup of coffee and a hot meal, offering words of wisdom if you asked. She was amazingly strong physically, emotionally and spiritually. She will be forever in our hearts.

Theresa was preceded in death by her parents Emil and Irma Hebert, her loving husband Walt, brothers Joe, Albert and Tom Hebert and grandson Jason Turner. She is survived by sons Jerome, Mike, Robert and Tom, daughters Debra, Barb and Mary, grand kids Zane Lindsey, Henry, Theresa, Danielle, Ben, Thomas and Alex. She also had 4 great grandchildren: Shalyse, Lyric, Carsen JJ, and Joyce. Sending all our love, honor and respect Mom...always. A celebration of life will be held Friday, Dec. 6 at 2pm at the Faith Community Church, 1005 10th Ave SW, Quincy, Wa, to be followed with Mom's favorite and easiest; finger foods.

“ Hi Mom. I have a new calling. After helping you and Ronert transient, I decided to volunteer for Hospice. I get to relieve caregivers and whatever else they need. Others aren't as lucky as our family. My first new friend passed Tuesday. Not sure where this is taking me, but I'm willing to follow the road. I love you and will see you in my dreams.

“ Well Mom, thank you for helping Robert go home. Mary, Dani and I got to help him transition. It really was a gift. I have so many emotions right now, mostly gratitude. I'm so glad he is finally at peace and pain free in every way. God is good, ALL THE TIME. Thanks for showing me the way
