“ I can't believe it Tracy. We've always been together. There's never been a day in my life that you were not part of it in some way. Our first day of kindergarten we were together. Every Christmas we were together. Hanging out after school. We even had our girls at the same time. Even though we didn't see each other often it didn't matter. You always lived nearby in my heart. I love you and my world will be less without you. Hold a place for me....I'll be back with you one day soon. Please hug your dad, mom and Gary for me.

“ I will miss one of my oldest friends. I am so saddened by her passing. My thoughts and hugs go out to Karla, Jenny and Brian. To Kate and John stay strong. LOVE you Tracy... I would also like to remember some early fun we had. Poor Dolly, we would her and kick her in the flanks, she would buck us off, we thought this was great fun. Stealing cigarettes from our parents, put them in a coffee can and bury them out in the back yard. We would make treasure maps to snacks in her mom's kitchen and go upstairs in the small play room an eat our reward, which usually consisted of the small variety pack of sugary cereals. When : o many came we would go hide out in the field, we usually got busted on that. So many memories, and not enough time. I will miss my childhood friend greatly. Some day when I see her again we will renew our friendship where we left off.

“ My sincere condolences to Tracy's children, grandchildren and sister. The news came as such a shock. She was far too young. Tracy was such a hard worker. She amazed me at her strength and endurance to be a butcher for large grocery stores. She had the strength of men to do her work. Tracy was caring, a friend to many, and loved her family. May comfort in her love help you through these difficult days.
