

Viola Mae Holloway

June 5, 1917 - April 13, 2008

Viola Mae Holloway, born July 5, 1917 in Haddam, KS, died April 13, 2008, in Spokane, WA. Viola is survived by her sister, Fern Bahl of Independence, MO; sons Roger K Holloway of Tigard, OR and Phil J Holloway of Spokane, WA. Viola had 4 grandchildren- Kelly K Holloway; Kami K Holloway; Lisa D. Laughter and Sheila M. Richard; and 7 great grandchildren Bailey Holloway, Ainsley Holloway; Laikynn Holloway; Page Sacchi; Dakota Holloway; Skylar Holloway; and Elliott Thompson. Viola grew up in Kansas and married Troy Holloway in 1938. They moved to Moses Lake in 1951. Viola worked at WT Grants at the candy counter in the 1960's. She and Troy spent several years commercial fishing, seeing much of the Washington, Canadian and Alaskan coastlines. Together they enjoyed many great nights of Pinochle with friends. She was a member of Eastern Star. Viola was an active gardener, and enjoyed the Grant County Fair helping with floral exhibits. Services will be held at Kayser's Chapel of Memories, on Friday, April 18, 2008, at 2:00 P.M.

“ Viola,
I didn't know you for long but I knew that you were very sweet. I would have loved to get to know you better, share recipes and ideas.Perhaps I could have gotten your recipe for Fried Chicken. I heard from Roger that it was Almost Famous.

“ Ron & Hope called me and told me of Aunt Viola's passing. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I have fond memories of both Uncle Troy & Aunt Viola. I was always amazed at Aunt Viola's crafts and the painted pumpkins. She inspired me to try crafts myself. My heart and prayers are with you all at this time. Sincerely,
Dottie##imported-begin##Dottie Strnad Kruger##imported-end##
