“ Dear Neighbors,
We have lived next door to the Cox clan for 20+ years. When we moved here the Cox farm had big beautiful brown cattle. One memorable night Virginia came to our place for help and Dessa, our daughter, Danna, Virginia and Wilson, the loyal dog, went out in the cold dark night to move the yearlings back to Cox's place. What a memorable experience to know that this herd of 20 yearlings could just crash through the sage brush and squash us all. Wilson was a smart dog, but not a leader. He was behind us all the way. When it was all over we had a good laugh and a necessary cup of hot chocolate.

Virginia was a perfect neighbor. She was a kind and gentle person, an honorable person, and a real lady who was dedicated to her family as well as dedicated to her job. She worked hard to serve her customers at all hours of the week in spite of her extended illness. We will miss her as a neighbor and friend. Our deepest sympathy to her extended family.##imported-begin##Steve, Danna and Dessa Dal Porto##imported-end##
