“ We well remember Wanda. When we moved to Waitsburg in 1953, she worked at the local pharmacy. What a friendly, nice young woman she was. We knew her folks, and most of her siblings, and her little girl, Nicki Sue who was the same age as our little girl, Claudia. Claudia now lives in the Bay Area. We send our very sincere sympathy at Wanda's death and want her family members to know that we thought she was a lovely person. Thank you for making it possible for us to sign the guest book. “ Wanda was the sweetest person. She always had a smile and a gift of sharing with others. My sister, Karen, and I have enjoyed many visits with Wanda. May all who remember Wanda, remember the best of her - she loved so many! May God bless all her family, friends and loved ones.##imported-begin##Carol S Hubbard##imported-end##

“ My memories will help me through the loss of my oldest sister or rather eldest as she preferred to be call. Family is very important to we Johnson clan.

Love you big sis.
