“ My Grandfather Warren Greeley’s fist marriage was blessed with a child, my mother, Diane Ellen Greeley. The marriage ended in an amicable divorce and “Grandpa Greeley” and my mother had a long distance relationship, staying close via telephone, cards and when possible, visits to Moses Lake.

My mother spoke fondly of her father and step mother Ethyl Marie. She was happy for the loving marriage he found with her. Most people would agree that relationships are complicated; at the core of our relationships is love. My mother has a deep love for her father and brother Warren Jr. whom she has always spoke fondly of. Our family is at ease knowing Warren and Ethyl Marie are at home with the Lord. I would like to acknowledge Grandpa Greeley’s survivors on my mother’s side:

Diane Williams, his loving daughter and her three children and their families;

Terri Good and husband Bob

Doris Williams, her daughters Rose and Rachel and his Great Great Grandchildren Jonathan, Isaiah, Jasmine and Gabriella

Donnamae Shaw, my husband David and our children Jacqueline and Dylan

“ My mom Diane was his daughter. While they did not see a lot of each other they talked on the phone with him and Ethel Marie quite often and we all talked and visited as often as we could. We loved him very much as I know he loved her and us as well. I am so happy he was able to meet his great-grandchildren as well. We will cherish our memories of our conversations and visits. I will miss the smile that was always on his face, I won't forget his "Is that Right?" and he never failed to ask "so how much daylight do you have"? (Alaska). I always thought he looked so distinguished in his hat. Quite simply - He had class. As much as we will always miss him - I am glad he is with the Lord and loved ones. I am sure the Lord has a special place for him. We want to give special thanks to Trica and Linda for all the love and time and for what they have done on Grandpa's and Grandma's behalf.##imported-begin##Terri Good##imported-end##

“ Warren was a special man, always had a smile, 99.9% percent cheerful. He and EthelMarie were quite a couple. They worked off each other and were always together. I can't imagine seeing one w/o the other.
I always joked about him owing the bank in Greeley, CO.
Please remember him with a smile. He was a favorite person of mine.##imported-begin##Laura Humphrey##imported-end##

“ Had the honor of meeting warren for the first time at Grant county fair many summers ago at the Republican Party booth. Warren and I spent a lot of time talking politics from then on. Warren was a very knowledgeable man and his love for his wife was immense. Warren was an example for us all. He always shared kindness, caring, and compassion to everyone he came in contact with. A true gentlemen and great man. He will be missed by all. May God provide the family comfort in this time of great loss.##imported-begin##Ray Moog##imported-end##

“ I am sorry about the loss of my friend. He was an extraordinary person. Warren was an example to us all of how to be a good decent man in an upside down world. He never wavered from his beliefs. His love for Ethyle Marie was know clear across the land far and wide. I will miss his presence at our house parties and the times I greeted he and EMG in public gatherings. He was a leader by example and never shy an opinion on difficult issues. If Love is the answer Warren knew it best of all. He was loved in this world and I offer my sympathy to his family.

With deapest love and respect,
