

William Matteson

January 25, 1948 - September 8, 2015

William Jay Matteson (Bill) 67 passed away Sept. 8, 2015. Bill was born in Detroit, Michigan the son of Graydon Matteson and Mary Harvey. He grew up and spent his younger years in Wabash, Indiana. As a young man he entered the Army and served almost 20 years prior to taking an early discharge as a Vietnam Veteran to care for his sons. Being a single man raising two boys was no easy task but they soon became known as “The Three Amigos.” Bill worked many years for the Boeing Company both in Moses Lake and Seattle. He retired in 2008 and made Moses Lake his permanent home. He loved being on the lake fishing and having a contest with his boys as to who could catch the first, biggest and most fish. Bill loved all sports and was an avid Seahawks fan. Bill and Sandy shared many adventurous road trips and spent time every summer in his favorite place, Lincoln City, Oregon.

Bill is survived by his sisters Dorne Goodrich and family of Roann, Indiana, and Cheryl Shaw and family of Batesville, Arkansas; son William Jay Matteson Jr with Brynn, granddaughter Jaiden and grandson Major, son Toby Jay Matteson with Stacy and grandson Tyler, “little guy Charlie” and “Sweetheart” of 30 years Sandy Eslick and family.

He was a member of: The Eagles, American Legion, and the VFW.

A celebration of his life will be held on October 3, 2015 at 1:00 p.m. at the Moses Lake Eagle's Lodge.

“ I only recently learned of Billy Matteson's passing and it made me sad for his family. He lived close to my family in Wabash Indiana and went to school at West Ward. After all these years, I remember what a really nice guy he was and his beautiful black hair. Rest in Peace, old friend.
