

Wilma "June" Ehlert

June 14, 1913 - January 25, 2009

The Lord called June Ehlert home on January 25, 2009. She was born Wilma June Caldwell on June 14, 1913, to Claude and Cora (Carter) Caldwell in Humeston, Iowa (Lewistown). At the age of three, the family moved to South Dakota where she grew up. June attended college in Spearfish, SD, where she received her teaching certificate. Shortly thereafter she met the love of her life, Edward Leonard Ehlert; they married and began a family which grew to include five daughters: Jeanette Enzler (Ralph), Karen Wilcock, Doris Gordon (Bob), Genene Ehlert, and Roxann Veden (Larry). From South Dakota where the family started, they lived in Boise, Idaho, before settling in Moses Lake. After Ed's death in 1961, June continued to raise her family on her own working as a child care provider, tailor, and seamstress.

As a long-time member of the Evangelical Methodist Church, she supplied the altar with beautiful arrangements for the weekly Sunday service and was a dedicated Sunday School teacher. Her love of gardening made her a lifetime member of the Peninsula Garden Club. She left a legacy of quilts to her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and many other people who crossed her path. She was a woman of few words, but instead expressed her love, kindness, and concern through her actions that touched many lives and made our world a better place.

Three grandchildren preceded her in death: Jamison Edward DeHerrera, Mark

Edward Wilcock and Jill Annette Enzler, and one step-grandson, Jerry Enzler. Along with her daughters, survivors include grandchildren: Wendy (Wilcock) Jones, Robert Wilcock (Heidi), Jeff Enzler (Kamelia), Jon Enzler (Tracey), Scott Ehlert (Cathy), Stacey Gordon, Cory Gordon (Jody), Melanie (Gordon) Miller, Megan (Gordon) Silzly (Todd), and Joelle DeHerrera, thirteen great grandchildren and four great, great grandchildren. Surviving step-grandchildren are Larry Enzler, Carol (Enzler) Tusberg, Aimee Lorenzen (Jason) and Ladonna Veden, and their children. Also appreciated is Vanessa Gates, caregiver.

“ i just noticed June Ehlert's tribute in the Kayser'schapel.com website. I am putting together the names now. Enzlers, Ehlerts and Deherrerars are all tied so closely together. i am sorry about Grandma Ehlert's passing. But, of course, as she understands so clearly now and what our faith tells us is that the next life is much more of going into the next room than it is of a death. It is just life in a different phase. I know in the fibers of my being that this is a truth.

God Bless All of You Ehlerts and Friends

“ June helped me so much through the 70's by babysitting my 3 children. She was so good with them from potty training, teaching manners and taking them to church with her. They are now all grown with children of their own now, but I know they will remember her forever and her patience and understanding is a big part of how they raise there own.##imported-begin##Sandy Millican##imported-end##
